

KETTLE BOOK CLUB

“It’s a book club!”

The inaugural launch of the Kettle Book Club was on February 16, 2016. It carries forward the rich tradition of the written word so connected to this space, formerly known as The Lion’s Head.

Since then KBC has been going strong, and will next convene on Monday, January 8, 2018, from 7:30-8:45.

Our next selection is “A Gentleman in Moscow,” by Amor Towles.

So grab your book and get in on this wonderful opportunity to read, relax, flex your intellectual muscle, imbibe your beverage-of-choice and hang out with cool people!

You can email us at the address below with any questions but no need to sign up, just show up!

Here’s to reading!
