

KETTLE OF FISH BOOK CLUB 'IT'S A BOOK CLUB!'

KBC will next gather on Tuesday, March 21, 2017 in the back room of The Kettle from 7:30-8:45pm. We do begin and end on time but members have been known to continue in excited discussion well into the night (hey, there's a bar nearby!). The next KBC selection is 'The Last Lecture' by Randy Pausch.

So far KBC has read 'A Drinking Life' by Pete Hamill, 'M Train' by Patti Smith, 'All the Light We Cannot See' by Anthony Doerr, 'Love, Dishonor, Die, Cherish, Perish' by David Rakoff; 'Dancing After Hours' by Andre Dubus; 'Lily and the Octopus' by David Rakoff 'Driving Mister Albert' by Michael Paternity, 'We Are Not Ourselves' by Matthew Thomas and 'Devil in the White City' by Erik Larson. Selections are picked by the KBC membership so come on time to draw your chance to choose.

Come, imbibe, discuss, debate and expand your intellectual muscle. No need to sign up, just show up.

KBC Member News! KBC's own Chris Struck's book 'Kennig and Gold' is inspired by the true story of a World War II marine and the love of his life who re-discover love in this modern American tragedy. The book is being published through Amazon and Barnes & Noble and will launch on April 5th. Way to go Chris!
