

KETTLE BOOK CLUB

The inaugural launch of the Kettle Book Club was on February 16th, 2016. It carries forward the rich tradition of the written word connected to this space, formerly known as The Lion’s Head.

A splendid time was had by all at our last gathering where we discussed ‘The Last Lecture’ by Randy Pausch. The next selection is

‘The Burgess Boys’ by Elizabeth Strout

So grab your book and get in on this wonderful opportunity to read, relax, flex your intellectual muscle, imbibe your beverage-of-choice and hang out with cool people!

KBC’s next meeting is Tuesday, May 2, 2017 from 7:30-8:45pm.

You can email us at the address below with any questions. No need to sign up, just show up!

Here’s to reading!
